Description :

PDF-d268f | Clean clothes and other fabrics are important for health, comfort, and economy. With the aid of automatic washers and dryers, Americans do 200 billion pounds of laundry every year. During an emergency (e.g., natural disaster, terrorism, or economic depression), electricity to operate appliances or the appliances themselves may be unavailable. Therefore, alternative methods of laundering may be necessary. Laundry...The Way Granny Did It: An Emergency Preparedness Handbook
