Description :

PDF-ec06a | In a disaster, having food isn't enough—you also have to know what to do with it. Deborah D. Moore has been a Prepper for most of her life, long before the term was popular. She believes in being prepared to winter in during the long cold months that she has to endure in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. An entire room of her small home is devoted to food and supply storage. Since her house... A Prepper's Cookbook: Twenty Years of Cooking in the Woods
